

Playgroup mornings

2010

Playgroup mornings are designed for children and their carers to enjoy a creative morning together at the Gallery.

Sessions include art-making in the studios and activities in the garden. The workshop costs $8.00 with children under 2 free. The gallery has a modest coffee shop facility and playgroups are welcome to bring morning tea and stay and enjoy the gardens and gallery spaces after the workshop. Please note: Bookings are essential and need a minimum of 12 paying participants to run, playgroups are welcome to book for less students for a minimum fee of $96.

Workshops available

Clay sculpture workshop - choose a food, animal or nature theme

Mask making workshops – a range of mask ideas - bugs, lions, wizards

Pirate hats and princess crowns - includes eye-patch and wand

Rocking animals – make a moving sculpture, and have an animal dance party

Train workshop – make a train and hear a Thomas the Tank Engine story

Landscape collage – go on treasure hunt through the garden and return to the studio to make your own wild landscape
